

Guitar lessons with Chris Giguère

Chris is a professional musician and experienced guitar teacher as well as a singer-songwriter and performer. To learn more about Chris' music, please visit his website

Private lessons, 30 minutes once a week. In addition to good guitar technique all students will learn musical theory, harmony, and interpretation. The course of study is adapted to the needs of each individual student and is intended to be fun and foster a love of music.

Cost: $28.00 per half-hour lesson

Method of payment: lessons will be billed monthly on the first of each month. Payment is requested to be made before the first lesson of the month. E-transfer is preferred.

Required: each student must have their own acoustic guitar to bring to the lessons and to practice on at home. Parents may also be asked to pay for a method book (around $15)

Where? When? Once registered, the student will leave their regular classroom and come to the music room for their guitar lesson on the same day of the week and at the same time of day each week.

If you are interested, please email me your child's name, school, and grade level, as well as a brief summary of his or her experience on the guitar and with music in general.
